

A Message from the Director, U.S. Census Bureau:

Your office has been a valuable part of our annual survey of building or zoning permits. We appreciate your participation and thank you for it. The monthly and annual surveys together have been publishing national information on new housing units authorized since 1959. In order to ensure the quality of all of the estimates we produce using building permit data, we periodically revise which jurisdictions are collected as part of the monthly survey. At this time, we are requesting your jurisdiction begin reporting monthly rather than annually.

Beginning in 2026, we will be requesting your data at the beginning of each month. You should have already received a request for 2025 annual data at the beginning of 2026 to complete 2025 reporting. Going forward, if your monthly response is complete for the reporting year you will not be asked to complete an annual report.

The U.S. Census Bureau's mission is to serve as the leading source of quality data about the nation's people and economy. It also produces monthly estimates of construction of new housing units, the largest component of the construction industry and one of the key economic indicators for the country. We also use your data to produce population estimates at the local government level. The population estimates are used by government agencies to allocate funding and other resources to your local area and for various planning purposes. Data users rely on your detailed geographic data to monitor growth and develop production and marketing strategies.
