

Figure A-4. Event Dropout Rate of 10th to 12th Grade Students by Grade: 1967-2022

The event dropout rate is the percentage of 15- to 24-year-olds in grades 10 through 12 who leave high school without earning a high school diploma or an alternative credential such as a GED.

For more information on confidentiality protection, sampling error, nonsampling error, and definitions, refer to www.census.gov/programs-surveys/cps.html

Source: Public-use estimates from U.S. Census Bureau, Current Population Survey, October 1967 to 2022

