2018 Census Test— Kiosks in U.S. Post Offices

Take the 2018 Census Test when you visit your local Post Office.

As part of a long-standing collaboration with the U.S. Census Bureau, the U.S. Postal Service® installed kiosks in 30 Post Offices in Providence County, R.I., to provide an additional method for the public to respond to the 2018 Census Test.

Kiosks are available through July 2018 at participating Post Offices (see next page).

THE KIOSK IS EASY AND SAFE.

Your answers are protected by law. The information you enter at the kiosk is through a dedicated Census Bureau Web site and is encrypted and transmitted directly to the Census Bureau.

The U.S. Postal Service does not capture, store, or transmit any data to the U.S. Census Bureau through the kiosks.

THE 2018 CENSUS TEST IS IMPORTANT.

It helps us prepare for the 2020 Census, which will count every person living in the United States. That count will be used to determine your state's U.S. House of Representatives seats, the distribution of over $675 billion in funding to states, and much more. For more information, please visit census.gov.

Don't have time to respond to the 2018 Census Test at the Post Office?

- Respond online at survey.census.gov.
- Respond by phone at 844-330-2020.
- Respond by mail when the 2018 Census Test form is delivered to your home.

For a detailed list of participating Post Offices, please see next page.
