more about MEPS-IC.

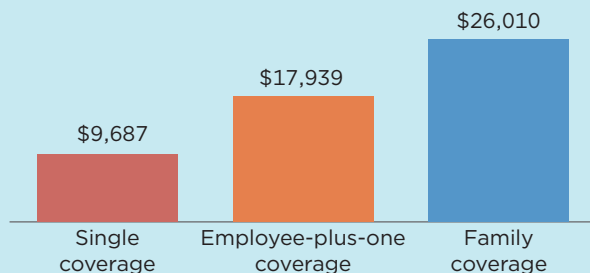

Your organization has been selected to participate in the Medical Expenditure Panel Survey—Insurance Component (MEPS-IC), also known as the Health Insurance Cost Study.

Your response matters! It plays a role in:

- Reliable economic forecasting: Health insurance data factor into the Gross Domestic Product (GDP), a measure used to assess the fiscal fitness of our country.
- Informed decision-making: Policymakers make informed decisions based on the employer-sponsored health insurance national and state estimates.
- Creating a dependable benefits comparison tool: Learn how your organization compares to the national and state averages.
