Major Innovations of the 1940 Census

First census to:

– include a question on wages and income (under the heading on “income”)
– to ask extra questions of a 5 percent sample of the population. (two people on each page)
– designate a special day for counting transients (T-Night) April 8-9
– include a coverage and content research program following the census
– include a census of housing.